Overview

The site includes the following sections: Clinical and research resources, Organizations and meetingscalendar, Job opportunities, Internet resources and parent resources. A special feature of the site is a complete educational guide to Evidence BasedMedicine (EBM) and a very well organized evidence based journal club whereclinical trials dealing with pediatric as well as adult intensive carearguments are critically reviewed in a systematic fashion to encourage the EBMAapproach to the medical literature and to provide an easier interpretation offigures and data.
